PERFECT BOUDOIR STYLING IDEAS

Welcome!

Hello and nice to meet you! You have just downloaded a very exciting guide that will take you through 25 different boudoir styling ideas for your experience.

The beautiful thing about boudoir is there is no proper outfit. You can wear anything from a wedding veil to a white bed sheet. This guide will give you some inspiration. There is no need to bring a suitcase full of clothes that won't photograph well. Use this guide to help you determine what to bring!

BONUS: We've put a few of our favorite shopping spots for lingerie at the end. You DEFINITELY want to check these out.

And if you have any questions at all, shoot us an email at lorie@photosbylorie.com or a text at 281-941-6767.

ALL PHOTOS USED HAVE BEEN CREATED BY BOUDOIR BY LORIE

1. Boots

Boots are like the sexy step sister to heels. So fun and so playful! You can wear this with a dress or lingerie. Sexy poses with boots include pulling them on (like you're getting ready to go out) or they can be just an edgy way to accessorize your images!

2. Bridal

Congrats on your wedding! A lot of people think bridal boudoir pictures means your veil is the focal point. Not true! There are so many different white pieces you can wear to get the bridal look.

3. Garter

The garter is the perfect accessory to match with your bridal lingerie. They are going to be slipping it off with their teeth come wedding day, so it's a playful hint at what's to come!

4. Button Up Shirt

This is one of my favorites! It's so versatile. The button up shirt has a feel of waking up late on a Sunday and tossing on a favorite shirt of your partner's. It can be tame all the way buttoned up or spicy pulling it open, taking it off, or letting it lay so it just barely covers you.

5. Cocktail Dress

We don't shoot a lot of dresses during sessions. We want your album to be cohesive and flow smoothly so a lot of times a dress is just too 'off' compared to the rest of the outfits. However, if you have a super sexy, curve hugging, HOT momma dress you think will work, bring it! We will let you know.

6. Strappy

Ready to spice things up? Straps have such a fierce character to them. They are powerful, edgy and really stand out!

7. Crop Top

Some people really love lacy lingerie, some really love casual Friday looks and some love BOTH. The crop top can do wonders for your shape and it is so suggestive. Play around with ones that are loose, tight, cut out in the back, and various lengths. I think you'll find something you really like!

8. Fishnets

These really work for a specific style and isn't for everyone. It can definitely add some fire to your outfit with the right heels and garter belt, though!

9. Garter Belts

Nine out of ten women have no idea how to put these on. This is pretty similar to groomsmen trying to put on a tie at their friend's wedding. Don't worry! We can help! When garter belts are paired with stockings and heels, they can add a few inches to your legs and make you look longer/taller.

10. Heels

A classic. Heels do so many things. They make your legs look longer, tone your calves, help your posture, and add an extra layer of sex appeal to almost any lingerie outfit. Even if casual if your thing, I still recommend bringing at least two pairs.

11. Halter Bra

These usually come with a beautiful pattern all the way up to your neckline. This is perfect if you are looking for something more modest, yet still captivating.

12. High Waisted

Everything old is new again. High waisted bottoms were popular back in the 70s, but they look SO amazing in pictures! They have a way of slimming the stomach (and hiding it, if that's a stressor) and the cheekie bottoms create an amazing curvature on your bum that will really highlight your assets.

13. Jeans/Leather

Jeans and leather pants are another one of those more everyday outfits that you can make sexy and suggestive by unzipping them in a photo or doing a picture with only the pants and no shirt on. Jeans can give you that "girl next door" vibe and is super playful.

14. Jersey

Let's get real for a second. Jerseys are designed to be worn over pads and large men and nothing about them will flatter your curves. If you HAVE to wear a jersey during your shoot, get a fitted t-shirt with the team's logo. This will fit better and be MUCH sexier than drowning in an oversized piece that hides your whole body. If you do bring a jersey, we will end up holding it instead of wearing it, like here:

15. Patterns

I'm all about sexy black lingerie, but sometimes it can be fun to throw a pattern into the mix. Not ALL patterns look great, so definitely bring a few options so we can make sure to photograph one that will look amazing on you AND in camera.

16. Robes

It can be hard to style an outfit that isn't just a bra and panties. Robes can give the idea of lounging around the house. They can be playful by slipping off the shoulders or worn without a bra underneath to add something more for the imagination.

17. Stockings

Stockings, heels, garter belt... they all add up to the same thing. I try to do at least one outfit ever session that is dressed to the nines. Feel free to get something outside of the standard black. Get something with a tiny pattern on it or something with a design over the thigh. Be careful to size appropriately - if you get a set too small, they can squeeze your thighs and struggle to stay up where they're meant to be.

18. Off The Shoulder

Off the shoulder sweater or over-sized shirt is playful and suggestive at the same time. It gives your hands something to do, too! There is something about pulling cloths in all different directions that is so sexy.

19. One Piece Teddy

Otherwise known as a bodysuit. This is one of my favorite kinds of lingerie to photograph. Bodysuits and teddies are easily the most underrated lingerie there is. They are incredibly flattering on ALL body types. There are a million different designs for how it covers you and is more versatile than you would think. I have so many favorite examples that I couldn't fit them on one page!

20. Themed

This is definitely NOT a common outfit type because the line between playful and trashy is EXTREMELY thin. If you have an idea, let me know, but most of the time the pictures will be much better with OUT a themed look. Stick with the other options laid out in this guide. We do NOT do many themed images in our sessions. So do not plan on this one unless we chat about it first. :)

21. T-Shirt

This is another casual option for your shoot. There are a million poses you can do with a t-shirt! A shot of you taking it off makes an amazing transition to show your next outfit on the following page of your album.

22. White Sheet

This is such a favorite of so many women because it is the ultimate "leave a little to the imagination" option. You can appear completely naked while revealing less than most pictures in typical lingerie.

23. Cheeky Undies

Most people think the more revealing the better. Thongs! But cheeky underwear actually add shape to your bum that looks amazing on everyone. When in doubt, make cheeky the first choice.

24. Sheers

Sheer material is similar to the white sheets and is also a favorite of so many women because it is the ultimate "leave a little to the imagination" option. Those sheers are typically a tad more see-through and photograph beautifully!

25. Jewelry

I believe that YOU are the most important thing in these photos and too many accessories can be a distraction. This is why you won't see many images from me that incorporate clunky or overpowering pieces. That said, some things can really bring an outfit together. Feel free to bring necklaces, bracelets or body jewelry you think would add to your images.

Let's Shop

If you want to have some fun and get something new for your shoot, here are a few of my favorite shops for getting GORGEOUS lingerie! Remember this shoot is about YOU and not about your lingerie, but a new piece can be a great confidence boost!

Adore Me

A new favorite, this store has a little bit of everything and is beautifully classy. They are affordable and have so many things!

Yandy.

This online boutique has pretty everything you can imagine. The quality is a little lower, but this budget friendly option still photographs beautifully.

Nordstrom

If you never had a real bra fitting, Nordstrom's is known for having an incredibly knowledgeable staff. Any client of mine who has shopped there has been glad they did.

For Love and Lemons

Another of my favorites! For Love and Lemons offers a very elegant and unique selection. You will easily find pieces that are just to die for!

Honey Birdette

Honey Birdette is known for being one of the sexiest boutiques in the industry. They're easily one of the higher end lingerie sources out there. They also have shops where you can see pieces in person.

BlueBella

I am absolutely in love with the creative ways this company designs lingerie. It is pretty dramatic and photographs amazing.
